Foreword

EACH year the choice of new irises becomes a more difficult task, and it requires a great deal of discrimination and careful study of the countless new varieties in order to select those that I wish to introduce, as well as to choose the ones from other gardens that are worthy of a place in my catalogue.

For this reason in the blooming season I visit the gardens of many prominent hybridizers and dealers and make selections of those that are outstanding, not only in color, form and substance, but also in hardiness of growth.

This year I am introducing several distinctive irises from different breeders, and I think you will enjoy knowing something about these hybridizers and their interest in this iris work.

Mr. John Dee Wareham of Cincinnati, Ohio, has been crossing irises for his own enjoyment for many years, and I am very much pleased that he has given me the honor of introducing two wonderful new irises from his garden. Triptych a magnificent deep yellow, and Rookwood that has the same subtle blending of bronze and heliotrope that we find in some of the famous Rookwood pottery. His work in creating varieties is of special interest for he was one of the first to use Dominion and Trojana in breeding, and since then has used almost exclusively his own seedlings in the improvement of his irises. His garden is one of the most beautiful in Cincinnati, not only for the splendor of his irises, but for the beauty of arrangement and harmonious blending of the many flowers and shrubs that are features of his garden.

Dr. Henry Lee Grant of Louisville, Ky., a Director of the American Iris Society has been doing very successful work in producing new worth while varieties. This last year I was thrilled and amazed by the diversity of color and exceptionally fine form in his seedlings. Those we selected for introduction this season are splendid in form and growth and plainly show the careful planning of his crosses. They are Sungleam, a luminous light yellow with a glowing heart; French Maid, a richly colored blend of rosy bronze, and Moonlight Shadows a cool porcelain white with soft blue shadows.

Mr. T. A. Washington of Nashville, Tenn., has been deeply interested in floriculture for many years, and really needs no introduction to the iris world for his extensive work in breeding all types of irises, has given us many valuable additions to the different classes, among them the Bearded iris Mary Geddes which was the winner of the Dykes Medal in 1936. Ever since the beginning of my commercial garden he has intrusted his irises to me for introduction, and the ones that I have chosen for this year are four Bearded irises, Gay Dawn, a brilliant rose and yellow blend; Lantern Glow, a warm white flushed with yellow in the throat, and the strongest substance that I have ever seen in an iris; Shenandoah is a tall and stately blue purple of flaring form and great garden value, and Sunny South, a deep vivid yellow with excellent branching. Also two Beardless hybrids, Tuckahoe is a glowing strawberry red, and Imosa, a rich orange and yellow blend.

For several years I have been visiting the garden of Mr. Kenneth D. Smith of Staten Island, N. Y. and have been very much impressed by the superiority of his seedlings. He seems to have an almost uncanny knowledge of the varieties to cross in order to create the wonderful blooms that I have observed in his planting of irises. Indeed, in choosing those for introduction it was quite a problem to select from the many beautiful seedlings the ones for listing this season. They are Diana, a very tall pale yellow of large size and great vigor, and Yellow Jewel, a strong deep yellow, clear in color and with wonderful branching. Mr. Smith is a new Director of the American Iris Society and we need these younger iris enthusiasts for in the years to come it is to them that we must turn to carry on the splendid work that is being done in America.

The largest amateur collection of the better Bearded irises in America is in the garden of Mrs. Herman E. Lewis of Haverhill, Mass. She is Regional Vice-President of the New England Region of the American Iris Society, and has been an ardent collector of the different varieties ever since the first days of interest in irises in this country. For several years she has been hybridizing the Bearded ones, and this year I have chosen three for introduction from her garden. They are Mayling Soong, a beautiful smoothly finished medium yellow; Waban Waters, a pearly gray self, and Sunup, a deep yellow with a strong influence of copper throughout the flower.

Mr. Joseph F. Wiesner of Saint Louis, Mo. has been interested in iris breeding for quite some time, and two years ago he sent me several seedlings to try out in our northern climate, and I have selected one of them for introduction this year. It is Gallant Leader a very large warm red that was pronounced the finest iris exhibited at the Saint Louis Horticultural Society Show in 1936.

Our genial Registrar of irises, Mr. Charles E. F. Gersdorff of Washington, D. C. has been hybridizing Siberian irises for several years, and I have been testing many of them in my garden. Last blooming season I chose two as being especially good and different from varieties already in commerce. Night Sprite is a very attractive blue that gives the effect of a bi-color, and Skyblue Water a delightful pale chicory blue self, tall and well branched.

Thelma Jean is the first introduction from Mr. Albert E. Peck of Framingham, Mass. and judging by the brilliancy of this iris we may hope for others from him with equal beauty and distinction. Mr. Gage and I take pleasure in bringing this clear petunia violet to your especial notice.

Mr. L. Merton Gage of Natick, Mass. needs no introduction to the iris world for he has been a very prominent breeder of irises for a great many years, and has given us some of the finest iris in commerce, and I am delighted to assist in the introduction of two of his new varieties Damerine and Red Bonnet, two rich glowing reds, equally fine but entirely different in color, form, and habit.

There is only one of my own iris seedlings that I am offering this year, it is Mountjoy a radiant red and yellow blend with exceptional garden value.

The hemerocallis introductions have been selected from thousands of seedlings growing in my country planting, and discriminating judges have pronounced them of exceptional merit and great additions to this group of popular plants. They are Chandra, a very late pale yellow; Bold Courtier, a stunning rose; Buttercup is a small flowered very late deep yellow; Colleen, a lovely azalea pink; Dolly Varden, Chinese coral pink and rose; Glowing Embers is marigold orange flushed dark nasturtium red, tall and late blooming; Golden Scepter, a beautiful yellow with very firm wax-like substance; Nankin, a full ruffled yellow bi-color, tall and late; Petra is a glowing deep rose with wide reflexed petals; Romany Lass, a freely flowering dark mahogany red, excellent for rock garden planting; Burning Star, a graceful ruby red lily type, and Tartar Prince, velvety maroon purple and the best of the early purples.

Growing in my garden are many iris seedlings and named varieties from different breeders, these are to be tested as to their superiority over other varieties which are already in commerce. Also, I have imported many of the best new irises from France and England and these are awaiting release from quarantine by the Federal Government, but they will prove of interest to garden visitors during their blooming season.

This year we have added to our catalogue the varieties that are listed under Introductions, and Novelties. I have chosen them after careful study, and assure you that they are of exceptional merit and are worthy of a place in any garden.

You are cordially invited to visit the garden and make your own selections of those that appeal to you, but if you cannot I will be pleased to give advice in choosing varieties, and will give it the same care and consideration as if I were selecting plants for my own garden.

ORDER EARLY. This suggestion is made to avoid disappointment in case that later in the season a variety may be sold out. We reserve the right to accept or refuse an order or any part thereof, depending on quantity of stock and whether at shipping time it is in condition to be sent.

All our varieties are true to name, but, if in shipping an error is made, we will be glad to rectify mistakes, either by supplying true stock or cash refund, which ever in our judgment seems best.

TERMS. MONEY WITH ORDER. Make checks or Money Orders payable to the

FAIRMOUNT GARDENS

We pay postage on all orders in U. S. A. that amount to $3.00, or over. We also allow a discount of 10% on all orders of $50.00 or more, except new varieties that are listed at net. We ship after blooming season until late Oct. We do not guarantee growth of plants in your garden; that rests with your ability. We do however guarantee good healthy stock and that it should reach you in good condition; any time a customer upon opening a package finds defective plants, he may at once ship them to us at our expense and his money will be refunded. Our success depends on your satisfaction and we shall be glad to correct any error.

If possible visit the garden during the flowering season and choose for yourself the varieties which most appeal to you, but if this is impossible the descriptions in the catalogue are accurate and you can choose with safety from them. These are the dates for height of bloom of the different groups, but you will find different varieties of hemerocallis blooming from May 25th to October 1st.

INTRODUCTIONS FOR 1939

BEARDED IRISES

DAMERINE (Gage 1939) A rich dark red self with wide domed standards and broad velvety flaring falls. A touch of bronze velvet at the haft sets off the deep yellow beard. Excellent substance and form. Very fragrant. Midseason. 36 in. $5.00

DIANA (Smith 1939) A superb light yellow self with exquisitely formed large flowers symmetrically placed on exceptionally well branched sturdy stalks. The light aureolin yellow standards are well arched and domed. The falls are semi-flaring and of the same tone deepening slightly at the throat. Styles same color. Beard bright orange yellow. Pleasing fragrance. Last season, after a beating rain that ruined many blooms on other irises, this one stood up tall and firm unmarked by the ravages of the storm. We are looking forward to this light yellow displacing Lady Paramount. It is similar in color without flecking, has a larger bloom and a much sturdier stem. Makes a magnificent clump. Midseason. 46 in. $25.00

FRENCH MAID (Grant 1939) A richly colored blend of rosy bronze. The wide slightly ruffled standards are erect and closed, of deep buff with a rosy flush. The flaring falls have a bronzy gold background flushed with a blending of orchid and wistaria, bordered by a band which matches the brown buff in the standards. Beard orange. Good substance and form. Tall with low branching this large flowered variety is rich in harmoniously blended colors. Midseason. 38 in. $10.00

GALLANT LEADER (Wiesner 1939) The outstanding iris at The St. Louis Horticultural Society Show in 1936 where it won the Sweepstakes Award. The standards are deep rose red very heavily infused with gold, fluted and well arched. The falls are semi-flaring of deep velvety maroon blending into rich brown at the very broad haft. Bronze gold throat illumined by a beard of burnished gold. For comparison it might be described as a glorified and richer Depute Nomblot with larger more glowing flowers of extremely heavy substance, well placed on four way branching stalks. This stunning iris withstands wind, rain, and heat and gives the effect of a warm red. Late blooming. 40 in. $15.00

GAY DAWN (Washington 1939) A luminous yellow and deep rose blend that reminds one of the coloring seen in a brilliant sunrise. Beautiful tall domed standards of deep clear yellow. The falls are slightly lighter yellow, heavily flushed with rich rose at the lower end of the falls. Deep yellow reticulations in the throat. Styles deep yellow, and strong orange yellow beard. A very festive flower of great refinement of form, and the most brilliant yellow and rose blend that I have seen. Midseason. 37 in. $20.00

LANTERN GLOW (Washington 1939) A warm white with a glowing yellow center. Arched and roundly domed standards of ivory white shading to yellow on the midrib. The falls are very arched and flaring with background of cream white heavily brushed with Indian yellow extending half way down the falls. Styles pinkish cream. Beard rich yellow. Exceptionally firm heavy substance, and impervious to rain, sun, and wind. Midseason. 34 in. $15.00

MAYLING SOONG (Lewis 1939) A rich yellow self of excellent form and substance. The standards are clear deep lemon chrome, well arched and domed. The broad semi-flaring falls are of the same color, flushed slightly deeper at the center, and deeper yellow reticulations in the creamy throat. A broad rich orange yellow beard intensifies the glowing tones of the bloom. A beautiful iris and a fitting tribute to the brilliant lady for whom it was named. H. M., A. I. S. 1938. Midseason. 36 in. $25.00

MOONLIGHT SHADOWS (Grant 1938) One of the most delightful new irises with an unusual arrangement of color that is most inviting. The standards are cool white, arched and domed, with a decided wisteria blue tracery along the midrib on the inside of the standards, showing through slightly on the outside. The falls are flaring, of icy white lightly flushed with blue in the throat and a distinct spot of blue at the end of the bronzy gold beard. A distinctive smoothly finished flower of porcelain like substance and great refinement of form. Well branched. Midseason. 38 in. $15.00

MOUNTJOY (Nesmith 1939) A very brilliant red and yellow variegata blend that has received much favorable comment. The standards are rosy copper, well domed and arched. The falls are velvety copper red with slight margin of same color as the standards, and changing to glowing yellow at the haft. Styles gold with copper midrib. Beard deep gold. The flowers are of good size and are well placed on tall nicely branching stalks. A tall and freely flowering variety that has exceptional garden value. Midseason. 40 in. $10.00

RED BONNET (Gage 1939) A dark red self with large flowers of fine form and texture. The broad standards are well and closely domed. The large falls are flaring and clear velvety red. The beard rich yellow. One of the reddest irises and invaluable for breeding reds, its progeny showing a variety of tones from crimson to near pink. Midseason. 36 in. $5.00

ROOKWOOD (Wareham 1939) A lustrous brown and heliotrope blend of great and unusual beauty. The well arched standards are glowing bronzed heliotrope. The falls have the same under color flushed with pleroma violet in the center, and a touch of daphne red around the deep bronzy yellow beard. An iridescent flower with the color changing according to the light. The large flowers have very good substance and are borne on tall, well branched sturdy stalks. The weather resistance of this variety was shown plainly during the excessive rains at the time of the A. I. S. meeting in Cincinnati last season. Described by several judges as a warmer and much finer Anne Marie Cayeux. Midseason. 44 in. $10.00

SHENANDOAH (Washington 1939) A very large blue purple self with exceptionally fine form, substance and branching. The standards are beautifully arched and domed. The broad falls are very flaring. Styles lighter with a darker midrib. The gold beard tipped blue adds to the splendor of the bloom. The large flowers have a very smooth firm finish and are perfectly placed on tall five branched stalks. A superb variety that is much more blue than most irises that are called blue. Fragrant. Late. 42 in. $25.00

SUNGLEAM (Grant 1939) This iris of exceptional beauty and charm was proclaimed by several judges as the finest lighter yellow of 1938. The broad and slightly ruffled standards are soft creamy yellow with a deeper yellow flush along the midrib, well domed and arched. The semi-flaring falls are deep cream with an overflush of rich wax yellow, extending from the tip of the beard well down into the throat, the falls are especially broad at the haft. Style crests tipped yellow. Beard deep golden orange with style branches held high so the broad beard is well displayed to light up the center of the flower. Strong firm substance and excellent branching. Narcissus fragrance. Mid-season. 38 in. $25.00

SUNNY SOUTH (Washington 1938) A deep yellow self with very wide and low branching. The well arched and domed standards are deep buttercup yellow. The falls are flaring of same color with Indian yellow reticulations at the haft. Styles deep yellow. Beard orange. The flowers are medium in size, deeper in color than Jelloway and with much heavier substance. It has no Dykes blood and is a wonderful seed parent. Termed by one A. I. S. judge as the hottest yellow to date. Late. 40 in. $15.00

SUNUP (Lewis 1938) A brilliant yellow of fine form and substance. The standards are deep chrome yellow, conic and arched. The background of the falls is slightly deeper than the standards overlaid with rich glowing sulphine bronze and orange, slight venations at the broad haft. Beard orange yellow. This stately iris is darker than Sunburst, but not as metallic in appearance as Naranja, and does not fleck. Tall and well branched. Late. 38 in. $25.00

THELMA JEAN (Peck 1938) A flaring well shaped flower of very distinctive coloring. The erect and cupped standards are clear petunia violet. The falls are broad and flaring of the same brilliant color with a slightly lighter sheen down the center, and a bronzy flush in the throat. Styles cream tipped petunia violet. Beard orange. A large smoothly finished flaring bloom with strong heavy substance and great weather resistance, the flowers lasting over three days during rain, wind, and hot sun. The brilliancy of coloring makes it an outstanding flower in the garden. Early to midseason. 36 in. $15.00

INTRODUCTIONS — Continued

TRIPTYCH (Wareham 1938) An outstanding large rich yellow of fine substance and form. The lemon chrome standards are very large and perfectly domed. The falls are beautifully arched and very flaring, with a lemon chrome undercolor embellished by a rich old gold flush. There are slight reticulations at the throat of gold on a lighter yellow background forming a halo like effect on each side of the rich gold beard. An impressive yellow with smooth firm substance, good strong foliage, and tall well branched stalks. The garden effect is a deep yellow with great carrying power that makes it stand out even on cloudy days. No Dykes blood. As brilliant as California Gold but of more mellow tone, this iris withstood several days of beating rain and strong wind, and was given unstinted praise by A. I. S. members at Cincinnati last season. H. M., A. I. S. 1938. Midseason to late. 39 in. $25.00

WABAN WATERS (Lewis 1938) A delicate glistening blend of great charm and refinement. The well arched and ruffled standards are pearly gray in color. The long and semi-flaring falls are pale blue flushed with soft violet, and the light yellow haft with blue violet reticulations at the throat gives an added beauty to the flower. The beard is ivory yellow tipped with blue. A luminous flower giving the effect of a pale pearly self. Mid-season. 36 in. $15.00

YELLOW JEWEL (Smith 1939) Very large glowing yellow flowers of perfect proportions borne on tall well branched stalks. The standards are very broad and domed, of clear wax yellow. The falls are rich lemon chrome, well arched, broad, and flaring. A creamy flush around the base of the beard gives added lustre to the flower. Beard is orange in the throat shading lighter at the tip. Styles same color as standards. The strong weather resistance of this iris was most outstanding after a heavy wind and rain. Deep and as clear a yellow as any of the recent American introductions with the added advantage, that excellent branching and beautifully formed flowers make it a perfect clump. Mid-season. 40 in. $25.00

SIBERIAN IRISES

NIGHT SPRITE (Gersdorff 1939) A very attractive flower with erect light blue violet standards flushed deeper in the center. The semi-flaring falls are bluish violet shaded very bright blue around the small white halo. The fringed styles have a turquoise midrib which adds to the beauty of the flower. The flowers give a decided bicolor effect and a clump is most outstanding in the garden. 36 in. $3.50

SKYBLUE WATER (Gersdorff 1939) A charming pale blue iris with erect chicory blue standards and horizontal falls of chicory blue shading to light lavender violet on the edge. Styles light with deeper midrib. Large flowers and excellent branching make this iris a great addition to this group of irises. 36 in. $3.50

APOGON IRISES

TUCKAHOE (Washington 1939) A glowing strawberry red self with semi-erect standards. The falls are flaring and the color is rich and velvety, a distinct yellow signal lights up the heart of the flower. The flowers are borne on four way branching stalks which extend well above the strong foliage, giving a very velvety rose red effect. Late blooming. 32 in. $6.00

IMOSA (Washington 1939) A new break in color in this class of irises. The whole flower has a soft yellow background heavily flushed orange. The standards are broad and arched of soft saffron yellow, the falls are nicely flaring with a light saffron yellow background flushed with medium tangerine orange. Foliage erect, and the flowers are well placed on erect three branched stalks. The first rich orange yellow in this beardless group of hybrids. 26 in. $8.00

HEMEROCALLIS

CHANDRA (Nesmith 1939) A light aureolin yellow flower of medium size with petals and sepals beautifully ruffled at the edge. Tall and very well branched stalks that are filled with buds giving a blooming season of six weeks. A pale yellow self that is a great addition to the late flowering varieties. Aug. 1st to Sept. 10th. 56 in. $8.00

BOLD COURTIER (Nesmith 1939) One of the most stunning hemerocallis that I have in my garden. The Pompeian rose petals are very broad and especially full at the throat with a creamy yellow line down the center. The soft yellow sepals are strongly re-curved, and slightly flushed with the rose of the petals. A beautiful outstanding bi-color, and a new type of hemerocallis. July-August. 38 in. $15.00

BUTTERCUP (Nesmith 1939) A rich buttercup yellow with larger firmer flowers than the species Multiflora. Many trim jaunty flowers well placed on slender but strong stems. This bloomed in my garden until September 25th. 34 in. $8.00

COLLEEN (Nesmith 1939) A beautiful azalea pink of medium shade with a deeper pink zone on the petals near the throat. The sepals are slightly lighter than the petals. The full open flowers have a smooth firm finish and lovely form, and are borne on tall well branched stalks. An enchanting soft pink. Aug. 50 in. $10.00

DOLLY VARDEN (Nesmith 1939) Open full flowers of Chinese coral pink with slight lines of rose on the petals and sepals. The center of the flower has a creamy yellow throat blending out to the pink of the petals. A very freely flowering variety that has a luminous frosty sheen. July-August. 45 in. $10.00

GLOWING EMBERS (Nesmith 1939) A lily like flower of glowing marigold orange flushed with dark nasturtium red. Open reflexed flowers of burnished red on tall strong stalks. Long season of bloom. July 20th to Sept. 5th. 50 in. $6.00

GOLDEN SCEPTER (Nesmith 1939) A tall and stately hemerocallis with flowers of deep Indian yellow. A large slender flower with deeply fluted petals and sepals, and exceptionally heavy wax like substance. One of the best deep yellows. July-Aug. 45 in. $6.00

NANKIN (Nesmith 1939) A most lovely and unusual yellow with very late blooming habits. The petals are medium Chinese yellow, and the sepals are a darker tone with a rich almost velvety texture. Many full ruffled flowers borne on tall very finely branched stalks. Long season of bloom. July 25th to Sept. 1st. 48 in. $7.00

PETRA (Nesmith 1939) A beautiful deep rose with wide reflexed petals of glowing rose, the sepals have a background of yellow heavily overflushed with rich rose, and a deep yellow throat. An imposing hemerocallis of very distinct and splendid coloring. July-August. 45 in. $10.00

ROMANY LASS (Nesmith 1939) A dark mahogany red of medium height with a purplish zone above the rich orange throat. A very freely flowering variety with open cup-shaped flowers. Lovely for the rock garden or border planting. August. 24 in. $6.00

BURNING STAR (Nesmith 1939) A star-like flower of bright Nopal red giving the effect of a graceful ruby red lily. The petals are recurving showing the golden yellow throat which adds to the brilliancy of coloring. August. 36 in. $6.00

TARTAR PRINCE (Nesmith 1939) A close full flower of velvety maroon purple with the color extending well down into the throat. The best of the earlier purples and exceptionally rich in color. June-July. 34 in. $6.00

VIRGIN (Washington 1938) The large domed standards have a white background suffused with pale cream. The falls are large and semi-flaring of white-edged with a distinct lemon yellow band. Short gold reticulations at the throat, not extending below the beard which is pale yellow. A strong, beautifully branched bi-color with with great charm and delicacy of color. 40 in. $15.00

VOLTIGEUR (Cayeux 1934) A tall magnificent iris of brilliant red. S. coppery red with a lighter golden sheen at the base. F. deep velvety mahogany-red with rich veining at the haft. C. M., S. N. H. F. 1934. 46 in. $4.00

WASATCH (Thorup) 1935) The flower has a glistening white background with the standards evenly marked with clear blue, the falls are broad and semi-drooping with blue feathering at the edge. H. M., A. I. S. 1936. 40 in. $2.50

WAVERLY (Williams 1936) The standards are domed, of chicory-blue, the falls are flaring with a slightly deeper flush just below the beard which is yellow tipped with white. The effect is a chicory-blue self and is most refreshing. H. M., A. I. S. 1937. 37 in. $10.00

WHITE BUTTERFLY (Washington 1938) The very broad pure white standards are closely and perfectly domed, and have a fluted edge. The falls are of the same pure glistening white with exceptionally smooth finish and ruffled at the border. Styles pure white, beard almost pure white. Perfect in form, and with especially fine branching, the snowy flowers resemble white winged butterflies poised for flight. 34 in. $15.00

WHITE GODDESS (Nesmith 1936) No. 111. Very large well domed standards of pure white, the falls are extremely arched and flaring and are also pure white. Yellow beard, and white style branches. The large flowers are glistening white and are borne on tall sturdy stalks. H. M., A. I. S. 1936. 40 in. $10.00

WILL O' THE WISP (Washington 1935) Well domed standards of soft canary yellow. Falls of cream white, horizontal and of heavy substance. Orange beard. A lovely bi-color. 39 in. $1.50

WINNESHIEK (Egelberg 1931) One of the finest in the dark-blue class, and deserves a place in any garden. 37 in. $.50

WISTARIA (Lothrop 1934) Large flaring flowers of light blue lavender. H. M., A. I. S. 1933. 36 in. $.50

WITCHING HOUR (Washington 1938) The arched and domed standards are buff yellow with faint flesh pink tinge. The falls are of the same tone and are dusted with burnished gold well down from the throat, giving the effect of powdered gold. Seven branched stalks, and also the branches are branched. A luscious yellow flower of firm substance, and the most remarkable and fine branching that I have ever seen in an iris. Very late blooming. 41 in. $15.00

WM. MOHR (Mohr 1925) A very large exotic flower of pale lavender closely netted with purple. Most unusual and lovely. $.50

W. R. DYKES (Dykes 1926) A brilliant yellow, sometimes lightly flecked with purple. Of great value to breeders. 38 in. $1.00

JAPANESE IRISES

New and Rarer Varieties for 1939

For several years I have been selecting outstanding varieties of Japanese irises to add to my collection, and this season I am offering the following list of new varieties that I consider extremely beautiful. Especial attention is called to those of blue tones, a color that is rare in the Japanese class.

- AOI-KURMA Dbl. A very deep blue purple with a decidedly blue area around the yellow halo. Not an extremely large flower, but very effective in the garden. 39 in. $2.00
- AOI-NO-UYE Sgl. A rare and lovely variety that is distinctly blue in color. S. very short, reddish violet. The falls are heavily dotted with blue between the darker lines. 40 in. $3.50
- BANGKOK Sgl. A freely flowering variety of even bluish purple. It has great garden value. 41 in. $2.00
- FUROMON Dbl. An interesting pinkish purple with a yellow signal surrounded by a small lighter halo. 40 in. $2.00
- IROJIMAN Sgl. A beautiful sky-blue flower of great beauty, and one that is very rare. A real blue and most outstanding. $4.00

ORIENTAL POPPIES

Best of the American and Foreign Varieties

Special Collections on Page 24

CULTURE. Poppies are best planted during their dormant season or early fall growth, which is from August 1st to October. Choose strong Field Grown stock, not pot grown varieties. Plant crowns 2 in. deep in good garden loam, be sure that the ground does not settle and leave a hollow over the crown in which water may stand during the winter. After first real freeze give green leaves a light mulch of excelsior or marsh hay.

HEMEROCALLIS

Species and Rare Hybrids

This list includes most of the species and a critical selection of the hybrids of American and foreign introduction. The season of bloom has been checked in my garden.

CULTURE. They may be planted in the spring or fall. Personally, I like fall planting. Set crown about 3 in. deep in rich garden loam. If soil is light and sandy it should be improved by the liberal addition of well-decayed cow manure, well mixed with rich loam. After ground has frozen give a light mulch for winter protection.
